Office of the Chief Electoral Officer

Notification

18-1-70/Elec.

The following notification No. 56/71-I dated the 25th January, 1971, issued by the Election Commission of India, New Delhi, is hereby published for general information.

O. P. Garg, Chief Electoral Officer.

Panaji, 28th January, 1971.

Election Commission of India

Talkatora Road, New Delhi-1

Dated the 25th January, 1971

Notification

No. 56/71-I. Whereas the Indian National Congress led by Shri S. Nijalingappa has a temporary measure requested that any of the symbols mentioned below in order of preference may be allotted to the said Congress, that is to say,—

- (i) 'Charkha',
- (ii) 'Charkha being plied by a woman',
- (iii) 'Mother with a child in arms', and
- (iv) 'A kisan with sheaf of corn on her shoulder';

And whereas the Indian National Congress led by Shri Jagjivan Ram has a temporary measure requested that any of the symbols mentioned below in order of preference may be allotted to the said Congress, that is to say,—

- (i) 'Child',
- (ii) 'Calf and cow',
- (iii) 'Youth bearing torch';

And whereas by a subsequent letter, the Indian National Congress led by Shri S. Nijalingappa has informed the Election Commission of India that it is not pressing for the symbol 'A kisan with sheaf of corn on her shoulder' as its fourth preference;

Now, therefore, in compliance of the Order of Supreme Court of India dated the 20th January, 1971, regarding the allotment of symbols and notwithstanding anything contained in the Election Symbols (Reservation and Allotment) Order, 1968 or any other notification issued thereunder and in exercise of powers conferred on it by article 324 of the Constitution of India, rule 5 and rule 10 of the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961, and paragraph 6, paragraph 7, paragraph 8 and paragraph 18 of the Election Symbols (Reservation and Allotment) Order, 1968, and all other powers enabling it in that behalf, the Election Commission of India hereby directs—

- (a) that the symbol 'Charkha being plied by a woman' which is the second preference of the Indian National Congress led by Shri S. Nijalingappa, may be reserved as a temporary measure for that Congress;
- (b) the symbol 'Calf and cow', which is the second preference of the Indian National Congress led by Shri Jagjivan Ram, may be reserved as a temporary measure for that Congress, in all the States and Union territories of India until further orders.

By order,

A. N. SEN

Secretary to the Election Commission of India.
